Narrabundah College and Campbell Primary School

We understand that both Campbell Primary School and Narrabundah College may be demolished (at least in part) due to the presence of asbestos material.

Narrabundah College has a heritage interest due to the unusual details of the vaulted concrete walkways, use of precast panels on the façade and overall good design and integrity.

The National Trust seeks information about:

1. Has a detailed heritage assessment been undertaken;
2. What is the extent of demolition proposed;
3. What will be the impact on heritage values of the proposed work.

Yours sincerely

Eric Martin AM
