VOLUNTEER today

Join us to create a better environment

 NATIONAL TRUST
South Australia

Why VOLUNTEER?

Our volunteers:

- Meet like-minded people
- Keep fit
- Enjoy rewarding work in a natural environment
- Stop for tea and a chat
- Find time for quiet contemplation
- Get to know beautiful places
- See much more than casual visitors
- Learn all about the flora and fauna
- Make a difference to our environment

How do I VOLUNTEER?

1. Contact us to discuss what your interests and abilities are.
2. Arrange to meet our Natural Heritage Manager at a nature reserve to see what we do.
3. Fill out a volunteer form.
4. Get on-the-job training and get started with a friendly National Trust bushcare group.

How else CAN I HELP?

You can also support our work by:

- Becoming a member of the National Trust.
This gives you free or discounted entry to over 800 National Trust properties around the world. You will also receive quarterly magazines and e-Newsletters with articles, news, special offers and event information. Visit www.nationaltrust.org.au/membership-sa
- Making a donation.
All donations over $2 are tax-deductible. You can direct your donation to the National Trust's nature reserves. Visit: www.nationaltrust.org.au/donate-sa
- Becoming a corporate sponsor and adopting a reserve
Your business will be recognised for donations of labour, funds or services. Please see: www.nationaltrust.org.au/sponsorship-sa

Who is the National Trust?

The National Trust is a worldwide membership organisation that cares for our natural and built heritage. It relies on the support of members and volunteers to protect and preserve special places. We welcome volunteers of all ages.

Please come and join us!

Why wait? You have nothing to lose and lots to gain!
